

We live in a rapidly changing world. Advances in communication technology and new cultural trends, keep us all on our toes. But in the midst of all this change, the Word of God remains the same. Its powerful truths and practical wisdom are as relevant and effective today as they've been.

What about studying online? Whether you are interested in a diploma, a degree, or just personal growth, the VBCI FLEX Program makes it easy for you to get started. Video and audio instructors teach you step-by-step. With our FLEX Program you can target specific skills you need, and best of all – you can do it all on your schedule and on your budget.

Why not put all your small group leaders through a small group training course You could offer a course to new believers, building a solid foundation in the word to grow from. VBCI FLEX: Flexible. Affordable. Theological.
